Art Unit: 1724

The reply filed on Jan. 12, 2004, is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action because of the following omission(s) or matter(s):

Failure to distinguish the pending claims, among them amended independent claims 1, 20, 36, and new claim 75, over the BRYANT patent. See 37 CFR 1.111(b).¹ Bryant was an "applied reference." Accordingly, for the January 2004 reply to be responsive, it must ^{have} ^{ed} present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions ^d believe [^] to render at least all of claims 1, 20, 36, and 75 patentable over not only the Rice and Farone patents, but over the Bryant patent as well.

In order to be entitled to reconsideration or further examination, the applicant or patent owner must reply to the Office action. The reply by the applicant or patent owner must be reduced to a writing which distinctly and specifically points out the supposed errors in the examiner's action and must reply to every ground of objection and rejection in the prior Office action. The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. If the reply is with respect to an application, a request may be made that objections or requirements as to form not necessary to further consideration of the claims be held in abeyance until allowable subject matter is indicated. The applicant's or patent owner's reply must appear throughout to be a bona fide attempt to advance the application or the reexamination proceeding to final action. A general allegation that the claims define a patentable invention without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section.

(emphasis added).

Art Unit: 1724

Since the above-mentioned reply appears to be bona fide, applicant is given ONE (1) MONTH or THIRTY (30) DAYS from the mailing date of this notice, whichever is longer, within which to supply the omission or correction in order to avoid abandonment. EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a).
